

Letters record

shakespearecandle.com

shakespearecandle.com

24th January 1598, Abraham Sturley wrote to his brother-in-law that "our countriman mr Shaksper is willing to disburse some monei upon some od yardeland or other Shottrei or neare about us...".

(Shakespeare Birthplace Trust Office, Misc. Doc. I, 135.)

25th October 1598, Richard Quiney wrote a probably undelivered letter asking Shakspeare for a £30 loan.

Richard Quiney was the father-in-law to Shakespeare's youngest daughter Judith.

It is written "To my Loveinge good ffrend & contreymann mr wm Shackespre" who "shall ffrende me muche in helping me out of all the debettes I owe in London I thancke god & muche quiet my mynde which wolde nott be indebted".

See Quiney letter

This letter is the only one ever found addressed to Shakspeare.

(Shakespeare Birthplace Trust Records Office, MS. ER 27/4)

11th October 1598, Adrian Quiney wrote to Richard Quiney: "yff yow bargin with Wm Sha or recover money therefor, brynge youre money homme".

(Shakespeare Birthplace Trust Records Office, Misc. Doc. I, 135.)

4th November 1598, Abraham Sturley wrote Richard Quiney that "our countriman mr Wm Shak. would procure us monei which I will like of as I shall heare when wheare & howe: and I prai let not go that occasion if it mai sort to ani indifferent condicions".

(Shakespeare Birthplace Trust Records Office, Misc. Doc. I, 136.)

Ben Jonson'e poem To the Memory of My Beloved

Sir William Davenant's poem In Remembrance of Master William Shakespeare

Baptismal record

Marriage record

Property records

Legal and Tax records

Heraldic records

Stratford-upon-Avon Council records

Theatre and acting records

The six signatures of Shakespeare

Other evidence

Record of death

Will record

First Folio Introduction

First Folio Dedication

Evidence of Shakespeare's life etc

Shakespeare connections

Shakespeare's family tree

shakespearecandle.com